Geography Chp 13 section 3

1. The Balkan Peninsula lies between the Adriatic Sea and the ________ Sea. (pg 377)

2. Romania sits on the _______________ edge of the Balkan Peninsula. (pg 377)

3. The capital and largest city of Romania is ____________. (pg 378)

4. Most Romanians belong to the Eastern ___________ Church. (pg 378)

5. Bulgaria is to the ____________ of Romania. (pg 378)

6. The capital and largest city of Bulgaria is ____________. (pg 378)

7. Bulgarian is written in the ____________ alphabet. (pg 378)

8. Most Bulgarians are Eastern Orthodox _____________. (pg 378)

9. The former Yugoslav republics used to be one larger country called _____________, but disputes amongst different ethnic groups tore the country apart. (pg 379)

10. The former Yugoslav republics include Croatia, Slovenia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Serbia, Montenegro and _____________. (pg 379).

11. Albania's capital is ___________ and most of its people are Muslims. (pg 381)

Chapter 13 section 4

1. Ukraine, Belarus and Moldova were once part of the Soviet ____________. (pg 383)

2. A vast ____________, or gently rolling, partly wooded plain, make up the eastern part of Ukraine. (pg 383)
3. The Dnieper River is the most important ____________ in Ukraine, allowing ships to transport goods within the country. (pg 383)

4. Most Ukrainians follow the Eastern Orthodox religion and speak ____________. (pg 385)

5. The capital of Ukraine is ___________. (pg 385)

6. The capital of Belarus is ________, and the religion of most people in Belarus is Eastern Orthodox. (pg 386)

7. Moldova’s flag looks like that of __________ because it was once part of that country. (pg 386)

8. The capital of Moldova is __________ (pg 386).

9. The religion of most people in Moldova is __________________.